

*InfraGard Minnesota
Upper Midwest Security Symposium
2018 Information Sharing Initiative
Federal Bureau of Investigation*

Jill Sanborn
Special Agent in Charge, FBI Minneapolis Division

Jill Sanborn entered the FBI in 1998 and was assigned to the Phoenix Division, working bank fraud and computer intrusions. In September 2001, Mrs. Sanborn was assigned to the Joint Terrorism Task Force until 2006 when she was selected for the Counterterrorism Division's (CTD) Fly Team. As a member of the Fly Team, she continued to integrate intelligence and operations, and was deployed overseas for counterterrorism assignments in Iraq, Saudi Arabia, United Kingdom, Nigeria, Kenya and Pakistan. In 2010 Mrs. Sanborn was assigned as a detailee where she gained valuable inter-agency experience, including when she served as the acting Deputy Director for law enforcement at the CIA's Counterterrorism Center.

In 2011 Mrs. Sanborn was promoted to Unit Chief in the FBI CTD's International Operations Section II, where she led more than 400 terrorism extraterritorial investigations covering Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Southeast Asia. Mrs. Sanborn returned to the field in 2012, as a Supervisory Special Agent at the Washington Field Office where she managed numerous overseas kidnapping cases as well as the successful extradition of four high-value terrorism subjects to the United States to face charges for conspiring and attempting to kill U.S. soldiers overseas.

In 2015, Mrs. Sanborn was promoted to Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) of the Los Angeles Field Office, overseeing all counterterrorism matters in Orange County, West Covina, and Riverside. During the San Bernardino, CA attack, ASAC Sanborn served as the lead ASAC over the investigation.

In the fall of 2016, Mrs. Sanborn was promoted to Section Chief of the FBI's Counterterrorism Division International Operations Section II, overseeing all overseas counterterrorism investigations.

Mrs. Sanborn was designated as the Special Agent in Charge of the Minneapolis Division in February 2018 by Director Christopher Wray.

Mrs. Sanborn graduated from the University of Portland in 1993 with a Bachelors of Business Administration in Finance. Prior to joining the FBI, she served as an investigator at the Los Alamos National Laboratory.

Singsopha Linthavong
Special Agent, FBI

Singsopha is an Intelligence Analyst with the Sector Analytic Unit in the FBI's Office of Private Sector. He joined the FBI in 2006 as a Support Service Technician at the FBI Newark Field Office. His background is in Cyber, Counterterrorism, Counter terrorist financing and intelligence coordination/production. Prior to joining federal service, Singsopha worked for American Airlines and Aramark Corporation, and is self employed as a freelance graphic designer.

*InfraGard Minnesota
Upper Midwest Security Symposium
2018 Information Sharing Initiative
Federal Bureau of Investigation*

Brooke Neuman
External Engagement Coordinator for Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell

Brooke is the External Engagement Coordinator for the Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell. Previously, she served as General Stanley McChrystal's chief of staff at the McChrystal Group. Additionally, Brooke worked in the Office of the Secretary of Defense for Policy, where her assignments included: Country Director for Afghanistan; Strategic Advisor to the Commander, International Security Assistance Force in Afghanistan; Politics and Governance Team Lead for Iraq; Country Director for the UAE and Kuwait; and Foreign Affairs Specialist, Defense Reconstruction Support Office for Iraq.

Barbara Graves
Office of the Director of National Intelligence Advisor to Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell

Barbara is the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Intelligence Advisor to the Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell (HRFC). She joined HRFC after serving in the Intelligence Community in the National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) for 14 years as a counterterrorism analyst and the first NCTC representative to the West Coast in Los Angeles, providing counterterrorism information to federal, state, and private sector partners. Previously Barbara has worked as a Special Agent in the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, a Special Agent in the CIA's Office of Inspector General, and an analyst in the State Department's Overseas Security Advisory Council.

Ryan Trzeciak
CERT Insider Threat Center Director, Carnegie Mellon

Ryan Manship
President, RedTeam Security

Ryan Manship is the President of RedTeam Security. As second in command at RedTeam, Ryan managing a team of consultants, is involved in security testing, and provides expert security guidance to customers. Previous to his role with RedTeam, Ryan led the Application Security program at FICO. He possesses a BS in Information Technology, with an emphasis on Networking and Security with a double minor in Philosophy and Humanities.

Ryan has appeared on ABC News, Business Insider, FOX, Tech Insider, has been quoted in Los Angeles Times, Bringmethenews, the Star Tribune, CSO Online, and regularly speaks at many different security events.

*InfraGard Minnesota
Upper Midwest Security Symposium
2018 Information Sharing Initiative
Federal Bureau of Investigation*

Kirk Hughes
RN, FF/EMT, CSPI, Education Director, Minnesota Poison Control

He is a Registered Nurse working as a Certified Specialist in Poison Information and Education Director for the Minnesota Poison Control System since 2000. He has been a Firefighter/EMT for the last 25 years and current serves as a member of the City of Ramsey Fire Department, EMS training officer for Lexington Fire Department and is recently retired from the Brooklyn Park Fire Department. Kirk also works as an Investigator for the Hennepin Medical Examiner's Office. He is a certified Advanced Hazmat Life Support Instructor, Hazmat Technician, and certified in Advanced Medical Life Support. He has been published in multiple publications including; The Journal of Perinatology and The Journal of Clinical Toxicology.

Timothy Rank
Assistant U.S. Attorney and Deputy Criminal Chief, District of Minnesota

Timothy Rank is an Assistant United States Attorney and Deputy Criminal Chief overseeing the Fraud and Public Corruption Section of the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Minnesota. Mr. Rank prosecutes cases involving complex financial fraud, public corruption, and cybercrime. Mr. Rank is also a Computer Hacking and Intellectual Property Coordinator and the National Security Cybercrime Specialist for the Minnesota US Attorney's Office.

Prior to joining the US Attorney's Office in 2004, Mr. Rank was an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Minnesota and Manager of the Criminal Division of the Minnesota Attorney General's Office, where he prosecuted felonies in counties throughout the state of Minnesota, primarily in the areas of homicide, major narcotics offenses, and Internet crimes against children. Mr. Rank worked for the Attorney General's Office from 1998 to 2004.

Mr. Rank started his legal career with the Minneapolis law firm Faegre & Benson, where he worked in the Business Litigation Section from 1994 to 1998.

Mr. Rank is a graduate of both the University of Minnesota and the University of Minnesota Law School, where he served as an Editor on the Law Review. He was a law clerk to the Honorable Will Garwood on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit from 1993 to 1994.

Brian Behm
Special Agent, FBI

Brian Behm has worked as a Special Agent for the FBI for over 14 years, with the last 3+ years spent investigating cyber matters in the Minneapolis Field Office.

*InfraGard Minnesota
Upper Midwest Security Symposium
2018 Information Sharing Initiative
Federal Bureau of Investigation*

Mark Lanterman
Chief Technology Officer, Computer Forensics Services

Mark Lanterman is the Chief Technology Officer of Computer Forensic Services. Mark was sworn member of the U.S. Secret Service Electronic Crimes Task Force. Mark has 28 years of security and forensic experience and has testified in over 2000 cases. He is faculty at the University of Minnesota, the University of St. Thomas School of Law, Mitchell Hamline Law School, the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada and the Federal Judicial Center in Washington, DC. Mark is a member of the Minnesota Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board. Mark provides regular commentary on national print and broadcast media.

Faisal Kaleem
Ph.D., Metropolitan State University

Faisal Kaleem received his Ph.D. degree in electrical engineering from Florida International University. Currently, he is serving as an associate professor in the Department of Information and Computer Sciences at Metropolitan State University as well as a senior fellow at the Technological Leadership Institute at University of Minnesota. Dr. Kaleem is an experienced lifelong cybersecurity practitioner.

His research interests include multiple aspects of cybersecurity including forensic education, computer and network security but more specifically in the area of mobile device security, mobile malware analysis and attribution, and mobile forensics. He has established a solid track record in teaching and has received numerous university awards. He continually appears on various local news channels discussing various issues in the area of cybersecurity. He is also a certified trainer and currently holds various industry IT and security certifications.

Jeff Peale
District ISO, Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis

Jeff Peal is currently serving as the District ISO for the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis. He has over 20 years of IT experience with the last 18 years with the Federal Reserve Bank. Jeff holds a Master's degree in Information Technology and is currently pursuing his Doctorate in Information Assurance and Security at Capella University.

Ashley Podhradsky
D. Sc, Associate Professor of Digital Forensics, Dakota State University

Dr. Ashley Podhradsky is an award-winning associate professor of Digital Forensics at Dakota State University in Madison, South Dakota. In addition to her professor role, she also has administrative responsibilities as the coordinator of the Masters of Science in Cyber Defense at DSU. Ashley has been an invited speaker at several events and universities including The Pennsylvania State University, Bureau of Justice Affairs, Women in CyberSecurity, InfraGard and DePaul University among others. Her research and work has been published and highlighted in several leading conferences, journals, radio programs, newscasts, and webisodes. In addition to her academic and professional work, she has a strong passion for increasing gender diversity in cybersecurity. She is the PI and Camp Director for GenCyber: Girls in CybHER Security, a program sponsored by the NSA. Ashley was the recipient of the EmBe 2017 "Young Woman of Achievement", and is a New America Cybersecurity Fellow.

*InfraGard Minnesota
Upper Midwest Security Symposium
2018 Information Sharing Initiative
Federal Bureau of Investigation*

 Xcel Energy • Doug Helton
Threat Intelligence, Xcel Energy

Doug served for 13 years in the U.S. Air Force planning and leading signals and counterintelligence intelligence collections and operations. After transitioning to the private sector, he continued to pursue his passion for building and maturing intelligence teams.

Doug has lead threat intelligence and threat hunting teams in a global Fortune 10 technology company, launched professional services aimed at maturing intelligence capabilities for Fortune 100 firms for a cyber-intelligence startup, and now leads threat intelligence for Xcel Energy.

 StratisAdvisory™ • Brian Stoeckert
Partner, Stratis Advisory